

Roll of Honour – Lady Chapel – St. Marys

The following lists the men on the hand written, framed, glazed Roll of Honour board in the Lady Chapel at St. Mary's Priory Church, Tutbury; the list contains those who Fell (marked †) and these who returned. They were transcribed by Robert Minchin in his 2002 Tutbury Memorials survey.

The Column (C) and Row (R) indicate the location on the Roll of Honour where the name can be found.

Note that James Hand, John Kidd and Albert Timmins, who Fell and are listed on the WWI War Memorial, cannot be readily identified on the Roll of Honour.

There are 333 on this RoH and that may not be the total who served (there appear to be additional men on the other RoHs below that cannot readily be identified on this one).

Based on the national average of 12.3% of the population that served, Tutbury could have expected to send 269 men to war based on the population of 2,186 in the 1911 census – it appears that more than 15% served – well above the national average.

Given that over 333 did serve, national averages would have suggested that 41 would be killed (actually 47 on the main War Memorial), and that 97 would be wounded (29%), 10 would be Prisoners of War and 35 would be discharged as disabled.

Oddfellows Plaque – Lady Chapel – St. Marys

The plaque of the Tutbury branch (Sir Oswald Mosely Manchester Unity 909) of the Independent Order of Oddfellows lists those who Fell. The Tutbury branch had at its peak about 400 members and met in the building at the top of the High Street on the Burton Street side. The plaque was moved to St. Mary's when the branch closed.

Congregational Chapel Framed Roll of Honour (Missing)

The following lists the Fallen (marked †) and those who served from the Congregational Chapel on Monk Street. The names were recorded in 2002 by Robert Minchin in his Tutbury memorials survey but the whereabouts of the memorial is now unknown; it is possible that it was damaged during the refurbishment and subsequently discarded.

Druids Roll of Honour

Erected by the "Who'd Have Thought it", Lodge 1489 of the Birmingham Equalised Order of Druids (chair: H.L. Newton, DSO) at what was the Castle Inn in Bridge Street; the whereabouts of this Roll of Honour is unknown. It was unveiled by the Vicar in February 1920. Those who Fell are marked ‡; in the newspaper article describing the unveiling of the Roll of Honour, the others are described as "Druids who returned to Tutbury".

Druids were a fraternal organisation similar to the Oddfellows and had no connection with any religious order.
